31/07/2014 - PLV training programme at District Court - Satara

During the year 2009 National Legal Services Authority (NALSA) brought out a scheme called the Para-Legal Volunteers Scheme which aimed at imparting legal training to volunteers selected from different walks of life so as to ensure legal aid reaching all sections of people through the process of Para-Legal Volunteers Scheme; ultimately removing the barriers into access to justice. The Para-Legal Volunteers (PLVs) are expected to act as intermediaries bridging the gap between the common people and the Legal Services Institutions to remove impediments in access to justice. Ultimately, the process aims at Legal Services Institutions reaching out to the people at their doorsteps rather than people approaching such Legal Services Institutions.

Para Legal Volunteers are appointed as per District Legal Services Authority, Satara under NALSA. Near about 40 students of this college has been appointed as PLVs to guide and aware the common masses about the law and legal literacy. In this training programme lecture delivered by Dr. Pooja Narwadkar, Mahendra Khairnar, Satish Mane, Priety Ghatge-Deshmukh on various socio-legal issues and tried to literate the PLVs on legal aspects.

Camp at college Premises Malkapur

On the eve of Women's Day the college organized "Mahila Melawa" on 17th March 2015 in collaboration with Malkapur Nagar Panchayat,. More than 250 women's around the nearby vicinity attended the programme. Booklet in local language was distributed among the masses. Shri. Prutviraj Chavan Ex-Chief Minister of Maharashtra, Shri. Satej Patil, Ex Minister, Shri Anandrao Patil, MLA were present for the programme.

College has successfully organized the activities under NALSA. Through this we have reached to more than 2000 people at remote area. We distributed books on law in Marathi so that they can understand the law in layman language. Our objective was to enhance and empower the common man towards law and spread legal literacy and we achieved that end. We have sent report along with audited statement of accounts to NALSA. We have maintained transparency in spending of amount and have not used a single penny for our own benefit. We believe in Social transformation through legal education.

To conclude:-

In this academic year we secured almost all goals that we set for at the beginning of the year. It is possible to meet personal satisfaction by offering what we possess.
